Total	100.00%	100.00%

The aforementioned details may be subjected to change as the Board of Directors or Board of Directors of PMCT or its designated person by Board of Directors deem appropriate.

1.5. Total value of consideration

The total value of the consideration will be determined by the offering price of the newly issued ordinary shares of PMCT in the IPO. At present, the offering price has not yet been determined.

1.6. Value of disposed assets

The disposed assets are the newly-issued ordinary shares of PMCT, whereby the consideration will be received in cash from the investors. However, the offering price for the newly-issued ordinary shares of PMCT in the IPO has not yet been determined. In this regards, the Board of Directors or Board of Directors of PMCT or its designated person by Board of Directors to determine IPO price and will be determined after the Office of the SEC grants permission to PMCT to offer for sale the Newly-issued Ordinary shares in the IPO. The price of pre-emptive offering will be the same as the price of IPO offering.

1.7. Basis used to determine the value of consideration

Currently, the offering price for the newly-issued ordinary shares in the IPO has not yet been determined. Therefore, the preliminary calculation of the Total Value of Consideration is based on the statement of financial position from the consolidated financial statements as at December 31st, 2021 of PMCT.

1.8. Expected benefits of the transaction

1.8.1 Benefits to the Company's shareholders

- 1) To provide alternatives to invest in either the Company or PMCT, based on their investment policies.
- 2) The shareholders of the Company will gain indirect benefit from the value of shares of PMCT reflecting the actual value and added value which may increase in accordance with the market price.

1.8.2 Benefits to the Company

- 1) To reduce the Company's burden to provide financial support, as PMCT will be able to mobilize funds by itself through the IPO, as well as through other financial instruments in capital markets or other sources after its listing on the SET.
- 2) Reduce PMCT's financial costs in the long run by having a variety of alternative sources of funding. Being a listed company will allow PMCT to raise capital at a lower cost than it is today.
- 3) The Business structure of the Company will be clearly separated. As a result, the management, development, and additional investment in the future business will be clearer and more flexible.
- 4) The Company's share price may be reflected by the fair value of investment in PMCT. Its market price will be able to be used as a reference price for trading securities, or as the consideration to make payment for the asset or business acquisition transactions in the future.

1.8.3 Benefits to PMCT

- 1) The listing of PMCT shares on the SET will increase PMCT's funding mobilization channels, thereby enhancing its capacity and access to more funding sources by itself at low costs, which will bolster its competitiveness and its aggressive business expansion in the long term through investment in organic and inorganic growth opportunities.

- 2) The capital raised from the IPO will enable PMCT to expand its businesses and meet its internal working capital requirements.
- 3) PMCT's business administration structure will become more defined allowing more flexibility for management, development and future investment.
- 4) To promote the image and reputation of PMCT as a publicly listed entity on SET.
- 5) PMCT's share price will closely reflect the underlying fundamentals of PMCT's business operations with trading liquidity in a secondary market as well as a reference market price when PMCT becomes a listed company. Its market price will be able to be used as a reference price for trading securities, or as the consideration to make payment for the asset or business acquisition transactions in the future.

1.9. Effects from the offering of ordinary shares in PMCT to the Company and Company's shareholders

(1) Impact on profit sharing or voting right (EPS dilution/Control dilution)

If PMCT issues and offers for sale its newly issued ordinary shares in the IPO according to the Listing Plan, the Company's profit sharing or voting rights in PMCT will decrease by no more than 28 percent of the existing profit sharing or voting rights. Nevertheless, PMCT will continue to remain as the Company's subsidiary.

(2) Impact on the market price of the Company's ordinary shares (price dilution)

As the shares offered for sale are those of PMCT, no direct impact on the market price of the Company's ordinary shares (price dilution) is expected. However, the decrease in the Company's shareholding in PMCT will result in decreased profit recognition.

In order to mitigate the dilution impact, the Company's shareholders may receive the pre-emptive right to subscribe to the IPO shares of PMCT in proportion to the shareholding interests of each shareholder of the Company. However, the pre-emptive right to subscribe to the IPO shares is subject to the consideration of board of directors, PMCT's board of directors and/or the designated persons of PMCT's board of directors.

1.10. Plan for the utilization of proceeds from the IPO

PMCT plans to use the proceeds from the IPO as follows:

1. To be used for PMCT's business expansion in the future, and/or;
2. To be used as working capital in the business, and/or;
3. To be used for repayment of loans from financial institutions.

In this regard, PMCT will further determine details and projects to be specified in PMCT's prospectus, which is currently in the process of preparation.

1.11. Conditions for the entering into the transaction

1. The shareholders meeting of PMCT resolved to approve the capital increase for the offering of the newly-issued ordinary shares in the IPO and pre-emptive offering, including the listing of the ordinary shares of PMCT on the SET.
2. The SEC grants permission to PMCT to offer the newly-issued ordinary shares in the IPO and the Registration Statement and draft prospectus to become effective.
3. The SET approves the listing of the newly-issued ordinary shares of PMCT on the condition that PMCT meets the free-float requirements.
4. PMCT completes the registration of the change of its paid-up capital after the IPO, with the Department of Business Development, the Ministry of Commerce.
5. The Company and/or PMCT, received approval and/or endorsement necessary for the Spin-off Plan from relevant authorities and/or entities, pursuant to relevant laws and regulations (if any).

1.12. Opinions of the Board of Directors on the entering into of the transaction

The Board of Directors is of the view that it is appropriate to approve the entry in to the transaction because the plane of offering of the newly-issued ordinary shares of PMCT in the IPO and proportionately to existing shareholders of PMCT ("Pre-emptive Offering) including the listing of PMCT in the SET are beneficial to the Company, PMCT, and shareholders of the Company.

1.13. Opinion of the Audit Committee and/or the directors of the Company which are different from those of the Board of Directors
